CERTIFICATE OF ACHIEVEMENT

THIS CERTIFICATE IS PROUDLY PRESENTED TO :

Siddhant Dasgupta

For securing 3rd position in “CODEMATHON” — a national-level technical competition organized by ANANT – The Mathematical Society, conducted in two rounds on Unstop and HackerRank. This certificate is awarded in recognition of outstanding performance, analytical thinking, and problem-solving skills demonstrated through the effective integration of mathematics and programming in solving real-world challenges.

We wish them continued success in all their future endeavours.
